Celebrating 250 Years of Independence

A Public Arts & Fundraising Event

Hosted by the Jacob de Cordova Society, Taylor Museum of Waco, & Art Center Waco
July 3 • 6:00 PM – 10:00 PM

Join us for an unforgettable evening as we commemorate the USA's 250th Anniversary with a vibrant celebration of art, music, community, and American spirit. This family-friendly event brings together local artisans, live performances, food, drink, and festive energy in one spectacular night.

Live Music All Evening

Three musical acts will keep the celebration going from start to finish:

- Twelve12 — an acoustic cover duo featuring the talented mother-and-son team Amy and Aaron Williams — will perform inside the Hulse Gallery from 6:00–7:45 PM. Their warm harmonies and familiar favorites set the perfect tone for the evening.
- U2 and Coldplay Tribute Bands, takes the stage outdoors on the patio from 8:00–10:00 PM, bringing a lively soundtrack to the night sky.

Poetry Reading by Sandy Horton

Food & Drink

Enjoy delicious bites from J & D Smashburger, along with a cash bar offering beer and wine throughout the event.

Local Vendors & Artisans

Browse and shop from a curated selection of local makers and specialty vendors, including:

- Silent Auction
- Cocoamoda Chocolate
- Mammoth Creek Pottery

- Waco Winery
- And others

From handcrafted goods to gourmet treats, there's something for everyone to discover.
